The Helpful Ants

In a tiny anthill, a group of ants worked together to build their home. One day, a big leaf blocked their entrance, trapping them inside. The ants tried their best to move it, but it was too heavy. Suddenly, a friendly bird named Benny noticed their struggle. Benny swooped down, grabbed the leaf, and set the ants free. The grateful ants thanked Benny and continued their work, learning the power of teamwork.

1. Where did the ants live?

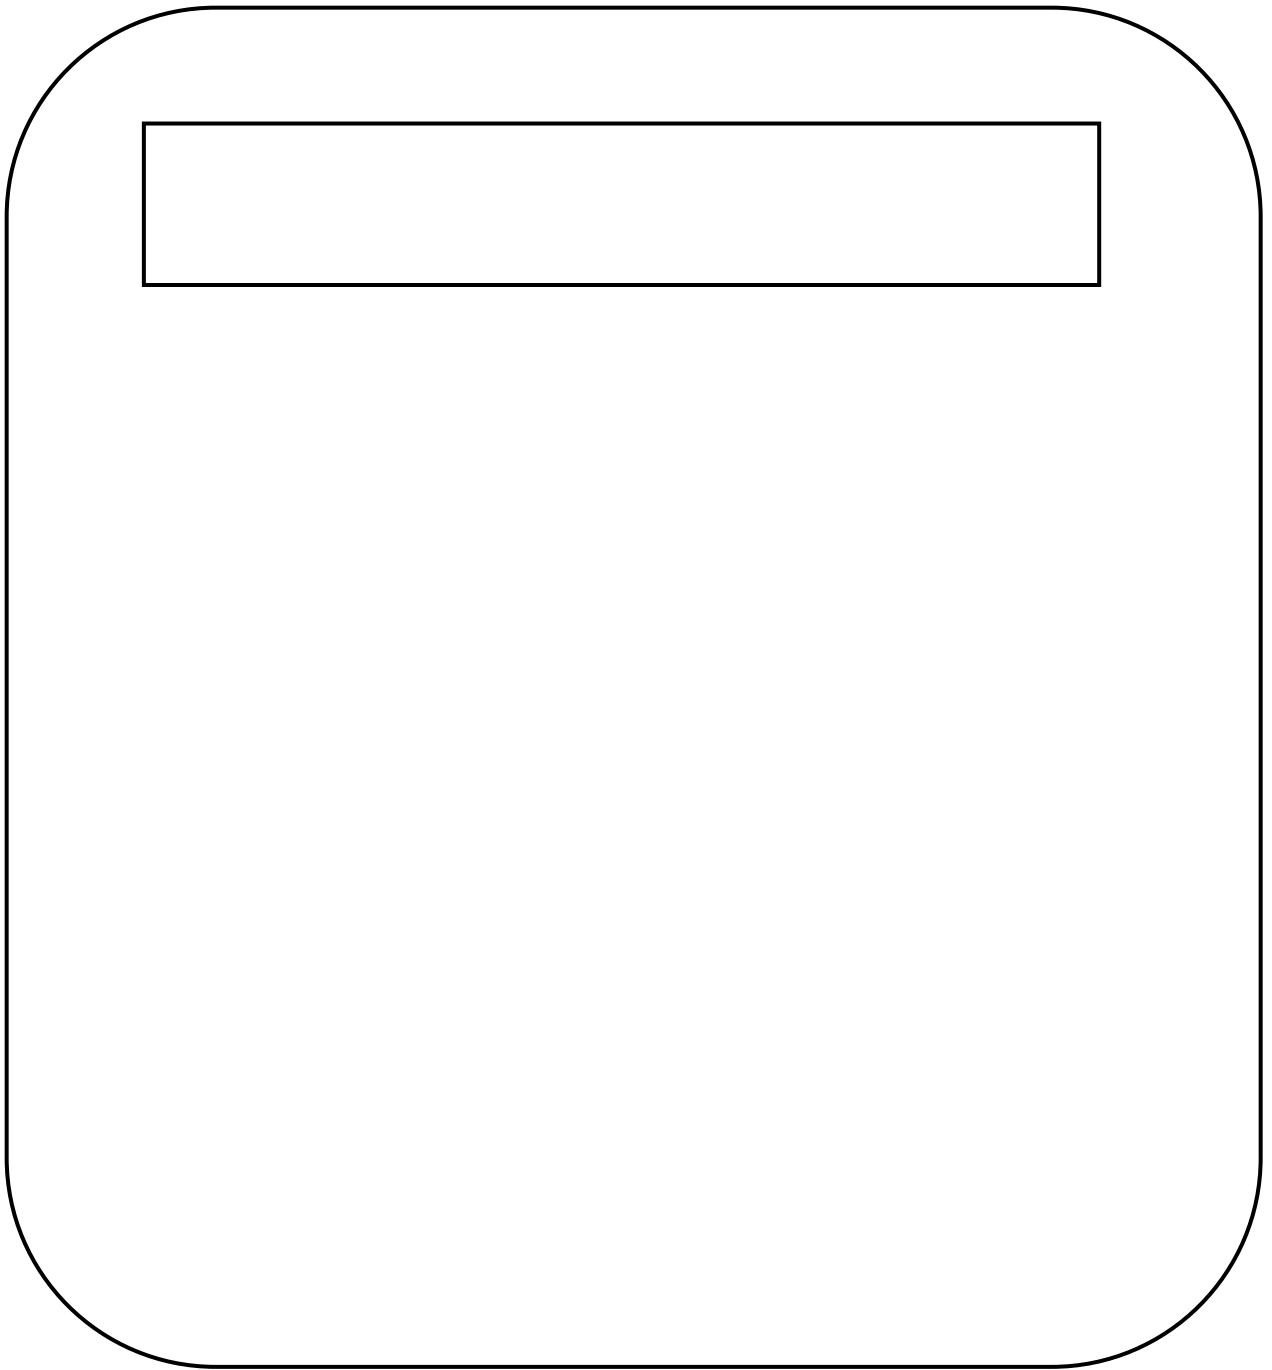

2. What blocked the entrance of the anthill?

3. The ants worked together as a team. Do you think teamwork is important?

4. Why were the ants grateful to Benny, the bird?

5. Describe the bird Benny using two words of your choice.

Give a suitable title to your favourite summer moment. Illustrate it in the space given below.

The form consists of a large rounded rectangular border. Inside the top portion of this border is a smaller, horizontally-oriented rectangular box, intended for the student to write a title for their drawing.
